

Lighting Design Considerations for WELL Buildings

Learn the lighting design elements needed to meet WELL Building criteria for point qualifications and understand the reasons behind these measures and how they impact choices in your lighting designs. Prerequisite Knowledge: Basic Lighting Design and Architecture HSW Justification: Required elements for lighting design to meet WELL building certification for healthy interior environments.

Learning Objective 1: Understand the melanopic lighting criteria for WELL Buildings and how to design to meet these criteria.

Learning Objective 2: Understand the glare criteria for WELL Buildings and how to design to meet these criteria.

Learning Objective 3: Understand the color rendering criteria for WELL Buildings and how to design to meet these criteria.

Learning Objective 4: Understand the flicker criteria for WELL Buildings and how to design to meet these criteria.